

LITERARY EVENT SCHEDULE

July 12, 12 noon - Book Talk and Book Signing, 12 noon, Don Dorman, Then I am Strong, Coming of Age in Myrtle, Mississippi. Museum Guild—Lunch

July 19, Lunching With Books, 12 noon, - Julie Cantrell, New York Times Best Selling author, reviews her new Book The Feathered Bone At the Union County Library. Lunch begins at 11:30 hosted by Pilot Club.

July 21 – Museum Moments, 12 noon - Renelda Owen, Delta State University English Dept., delivers a Lecture and Power-Point on The Life of Paul Rainey. Lunch begins at 11:30 Union County Heritage Museum, Renasant Bank will host lunch.

August 16 – Lunching with Books – 12 noon "Colonel W. C. Falkner as Inspiration for Colonel Sartoris in the Yoknapatawpha Saga." Review by Scholar Renelda Owen, Delta State University English Dept., Lunch begins at 11:30. Histori North side Garden Club will host lunch.

August 18 Museum Moments – 12 noon, William Faulkner and his Wine by Barbara Ensruide, wine sommelier . Lunch begins at 11:30, Union County Heritage Museum. Museum Guild will host lunch.

September 6, Poetry Workshop—Autry Davis with NAES students at the museum
Adult Writing Workshop at the Museum DTA

September 15, Museum Moments , 12 noon - Robert Hamblin, S.E. Missouri State University writer and curator of the Faulkner Collection will have a lecture and book signing of his new Faulkner Biography Myself and the World, at the museum.

Tuesday, September 20, 12 noon – Lunching With Books - Professor Kate Stewart, University of Arkansas at Monticello, will review Faulkner's Light in August .

Friday, September 23, 12 noon – Literary Luncheon - John Hailman, author of Midnight to Guntown will be the speaker at the annual Literary Luncheon where approximately $5,000 will be presented to the winners of the William Faulkner Literary Competition – Novel, Short Story, One Act Play, Poetry and student short story at the First United Methodist Church, Bankhead Street, NA. Ticketed event. Call 538-0014.

Friday, September 23 – Art Education - Cast Iron Foundry Artists Johnny Williams and a co worker from Alabama Art Casting will meet with high school art students to help with scratch block carving that will be poured at Fire on the River on Saturday when a cast iron pour will be done on in the grassy area near the Tallahatchie River.

Friday September 23, 5:30- 7, p.m. – Exhibit Opening - Faulkner and Folk Art Juried Exhibit – Cash Prizes at the Annual Event – Featured book in 2016 is Faulkner's Light in August. Live music will be featured at the exhibit opening

Friday, Sept. 23rd – Tallahatchie River Players favorites of Past One Act Play winners - Downtown - TRP will choose a few of their favorite past winners and perform them downtown, You might find us at the trail head, on the sidewalk or maybe in your favorite restaurant!! Look for us starting around 6pm! Maybe will we presenting one of your favorites too!

Tallahatchie River Run begins at 8:30 a.m. in downtown New Albany- Join us for one of Mississippi's most popular runs, the BNA Tallahatchie River Run, a challenging 5k race/walk (with a few hills!) winding through the streets of historic downtown New Albany and peaceful residential areas! There will be a 1/2 Mile Fun Run for ages 7 and under (Under 5 must be accompanied by an Adult) starting at 8:00 am at 133 EAST BANKHEAD (BNA.) Then the 5k and 1 Mile Race for 12 and under will start at 8:30 a.m. at the Tallahatchie River Bridge.

Saturday, September 24 – Fire on the River and the Hammer In begins mid morning down town by the river after the run along with live music and food concessions. It is a Family Friendly Event.

Sept 24th - TRP will present these plays presents the One act play winners from 2015! Music line up - on the Biscuits and Jam Stage and down Bankhead Street The Blues Doctors and a Blues Harmonica Blowout The Cakewalkers Band and a Cakewalk!